Says WILL ROGERS

BEVERLY HILLS.—Well all I know is just what little I read in the papers. Somebody just sent me a clipping I see here and it says who has been left off and who added to the Social Register. Now that is a laugh ain't it? (I would be dropped if I ever got on for saying "Ain't"). Of all the undemocratic things you can think of just off hand, that is the prize "Hoony." A look to tell you who is a good Parlor Hound, and who is a sort of a hanger around the tea table.

I see just off hand here that Polly Lauder, (a niece of Harry Lauder) who married Gene Tunney has been dropped from the "Register." It she had married a Society Bootlegger she would have made the grade but when she married Gene, a man who had been a pretty fare type of Gentleman whose only fault in his profession was that he shook hands with you before knocking you Cuckoo, why they right away said that Polly didn't grade up to par. She had been negligent in picking a Mayflower seed. Tunney's name never had been in "Bulseye sheet." But it had to tell in there who she had "promised to Love honor and break clean in the clutches with," so in that way it had to name Gene. So in a kind of a back alley way his name was in there, not intentionally, but in there. So I guess that why they had to drop Polly. They left her in there for one year to see if she would repent and come back to Cocktail cavalcade, but as she didn't they just got themselves a great big eraser and she dropped in Social oblivion. And I bet that just about broke that girl's heart. For here she had spent a lifetime picking out parents who were eligible, and now she had gone and doped after working hard to make the grade, and here at the last minute flunk. Now what can she do, where can she go? Decent people won't have anything to do with her. Everybody will look at her and say, "Why that's Polly Lauder." She used to be somebody and was fine and social, but they dropped her right off the book and here she is practically destitute of all the other members of the great Fraternity of those who are somebody by grace of proper propagation, (and ordering enough books).

All of which gets us back to "What is Society and what is a Gentleman?" Well of course it's easy to define a Gentleman, a gentleman is to my way of thinking a man that can play golf and don't say so. But as he is so few in fact it has been discussed whether there is any at all.

Now as to "What is Society." Society is any band of folks that kinder throw in with each other, and mess around together for each other's discomfort. Any little or big group of folks that sorter flock together are "Society" in some form or other. The ones with the more money have more to eat and drink at their affairs, and their clothes cost more, and so that's called "High Society." Now the morals or personal behavior of its Members have nothing to do with it. The offender they crash the front page the solidier they are in their fraternity. And its sorter hereditary. No matter who you raise up in your family Zoo why they naturally inherit your space in the "Social Register." Your personal accomplishments have nothing to do with it.

So for downright amusement in reading matter that Register will compete with the Congressional Register and College Humor.

Kinder thought Mr. Coolidge would have to get round to criticism. It's fine to just keep saying everything is great, but about the only way to prove it to people is for things to be great.

Even our old family doctor can't fool us. We are the one that's got the stomach and we know whether it's hurting or not.

So Calvin hopped on the Farm Board in his "Sermonette." The poor farmer can't get a break. Just when it looked like he would be able to sell his land for real golf courses somebody invents golf that you can play in the kitchen sink.

Oklahoma and Texas have an original primary system.

They have so many seeking office that the first primary is only to find out how many are desirous of living off the State.

The second primary is to eliminate 50 per cent of these.

The third is to get rid of half of what is left.

The fourth is to eliminate any good man that might have crept in by mistake.

Now, you have just politicians, so the fifth one is to have in the two worst ones, and they run it off.

NORTH BRANCH SORRY TO LOSE BURNS

Thru the courtesy of the editor of the North Branch Gazette we are in receipt of a copy of their June 20th edition which has the following to say of Supt. R. R. Burns and family:

R. R. Burns, who for the past ten years, has successfully filled the post of superintendent of the local public schools, has tendered his resignation, to accept a similar position in the schools at Grayling.

Since coming here to head the local faculty in the fall of 1920, Mr. Burns' abilities as faculty supervisor, classroom instructor and general disciplinarian have been evidenced by the resulting cooperation, live school spirit and academic progress in all departments of the school. Students of the ten classes, who have completed their high school careers under his superintendency, testify to the vividness and clarity with which he presented the subject matter of the classroom and to his thorough knowledge of the subject under discussion.

In December of 1920, Mr. Burns was united in marriage to Miss Leona Decker of Laingsburg, at that time a grade teacher in the local schools. During the ten years of her residence here, Mrs. Burns has won many lasting friendships through her contacts made in the social life of the community.

Friends of this vicinity deeply regret their departure, terminating such a long period of pleasant association. Hopes of well wishes for their prosperity will follow them to their new home.

Aug. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Burns and two little daughters, Corinne and Louise Ann, left Tuesday morning to take up permanent residence in Grayling where, in early September, Mr. Burns will begin his duties as superintendent of public schools.

In July Mr. Burns returned from Camp Custer, where he had served for two weeks in an official capacity during the period of Citizens' Military Training there, having received the commission of First Lieutenant in the organized Reserves, 340th Inf., in the year 1918. During his time spent at the training camp, Mrs.

MATILDA FOLEY-BISHOP BRACES QUAKE IN ITALY

(Special to the Avalanche)

Naples, July 28, 1930.—Mrs. Bishop who is touring in Europe, tells of thrilling experience in the earthquake area of South Central Italy.

On the night of the 23rd a lull fell over the vicinity; the air became heavy, then a distant rumble like that of thunder. The earth moved in a wave-like motion. The street lights reminded one of swaying torches; a soft crushing sound of the crumbling masonry filled the air.

Her first thought was to get back to her hotel, but the location completely left her mind. Plaster and dust sifted from the brick buildings and came the sound of human voices, as the people rushed into the street. Screams from those injured by the collapse of weakened walls, added to the near panic.

She was actually frozen with fear. The forty-five minutes of the quake seemed like hours. In reality it was a very brief shake-up and now that it is all over she doesn't mind the experience.

She left for Rome the next morning, after four wonderful days—a pleasure every moment—except the earthquake.

Mrs. Bishop is a daughter of Mrs. Wm. Foley of this city and is the principal of one of the Cleveland, Ohio, schools.

BRUCKER TALKS TO GRAYLING VOTERS

Wilber M. Brucker, attorney general and candidate for governor spoke to a small audience at the band stand here last Friday afternoon. Mr. Brucker was introduced by T. W. Hanson.

He spoke of several of the issues of the present gubernatorial campaign among which was the "gas tax." This, he stated, was the best and fairest plan for helping to keep up the highway fund of the state. By the present system of 3c tax per gallon of gasoline it brot in a revenue that made it possible to have funds for building and keeping up the highways of the state. By the gas tax all those who travelled the highways were taxed in accordance with the extent of their travels. This applies to those who come here from other states as well as ourselves. When the gas tax bill was first passed it was vetoed by Gov. Groesbeck but later became a law.

On the matter of highways he said that he favored the building up of the rural districts and was not in favor of allowing the metropolitan districts to hog it all just because the traffic happens to be heavier in certain sections such as Detroit and the area reaching to Pontiac, Flint and other heavily populated communities. While these places should receive an equitable share of the highway funds still the rural districts where areas were just as large but valuations smaller should be provided with good highways. Mr. Brucker's trip from Kalkaska to Grayling was an eye-opener to him to realize that it was the State's Worst Highway. A distance of 29 miles that cannot be travelled in less than an hour with safety is a highway that is no credit to the state.

Mr. Brucker stated that he was not a wealthy man and could not afford to buy a governorship and that in case he was elected that he would be free from obligation to anyone or any faction.

His next speaking stops were at Lake City and Cadillac.

BRUCKER REALIZES NEED FOR ROAD IMPROVEMENT

Touring the state on a fast schedule by automobile has made Attorney General Wilber M. Brucker a more ardent advocate for good roads than ever. On a recent tour of the northern part of the state he encountered two stretches of trunk line road which left indelible impressions on his mind.

The section of M-33, from Mio to Atlanta, where construction work now is being done, resulted in his failure to keep a speaking engagement in Atlanta. His automobile became stuck in the heavy sand, requiring a team of horses to pull it out of the sand.

The following day he had to cut Kalkaska off his speaking schedule because of the condition of M-76 from Kalkaska to Grayling. Brucker's tour manager had routed him through Kalkaska to Grayling with a speech at Grayling on the return trip. The schedule called for traveling the 25 miles in 30 minutes. As those familiar with the road know, the trip takes more than one hour, so he was forced to cancel the Kalkaska engagement to avoid the return trip.

BIDS WANTED

Bids will be received for transportation of children to and from School District No. 3 up to and including August 30, 1930.

8-14-3 A. P. FELDHAUSER.

If a child wakes up too early or sleeps sturly during the night, perhaps his supper has not provided quite enough nourishment to carry him through to the breakfast hour. Make sure that the last meal of the day provides some milk, bread and butter, a vegetable and possibly a fruit, such as scrapped baked apple.

INTERESTING FRUIT BROUGHT TO THE AVALANCHE

Mrs. J. H. Dye, who has a fruit grove in Miami, Fla., brought us an interesting fruit, the Avacado Pear which was grown on her farm. This fruit which is grown only in the summer is not so familiar to the winter resorters and as it is grown only below the frost belt which includes certain parts of Florida and Cuba, the fruit is a rarity in this part of the country. Mrs. Dye has left one of these pears in the Avalanche office for those who wish to see it.

These pear trees blossom in January and February and the fruit matures in early summer. The pears have to be picked very carefully so as to allow no bruises and then are left a few days to ripen in the sun. One tree will furnish about fifteen crates of fruit, most of which is shipped to northern hotels and high class eating places. One of the pears which averages about a pound and a half, will sell for one dollar.

FOR STATE SENATOR 28TH DISTRICT—LAUREN J. BUDGE

—of Beaverton was born May 22, 1880, at Lee, Maine. At 12 years of age he came to Michigan, became a registered pharmacist in 1904, graduating from Ferris Institute. He has been alderman, supervisor and mayor, and at present serves as president of board of commerce. In 1917 he was commissioned as first lieutenant of infantry and served in that capacity to the end of the war, being one year in France. In 1926 and 1928 he was elected to the legislature by large majorities over democratic opponents. As a member of the legislature he always advocated lower taxes, favored the Turner bill to aid poorer school districts and supported good roads and voted for conservation measures.

Mr. Budge finds himself in the unique position of knowing intimately the problems of the farmer, laborer and business man, and he can lend an intelligent and sympathetic ear to all these groups.

The Gladwin Record says: "He has had the respect and confidence of his fellow members. He has, at all times, had a watchful eye on matters pertaining to the interest of this district and has been diligent in his attention to legislative affairs."—Political Advertisement.

GRANGE PICNIC TO BE HELD AUGUST 23RD

Crawford County Grange announces their annual picnic to be held at the Richard Babbitt farm in Maple Forest Township on Saturday, August 23.

Everyone is invited, farmers and their families and anyone else who cares to come. Each family of course will see to it that they bring a well filled basket, as the picnic dinner will be held at noon. In the afternoon there will be contests and races with prizes awarded to winners, and a horseshoe pitching contest that will be a big attraction. Too a prize will be given to the youngest and oldest person present.

It's going to be a big day with a dance at the Maple Forest town hall in the evening.

Don't forget the date.

If You're Looking For Legend

Caseville has its points as a modern village, and a beach for swimming—but being an antique hunter, I got lost in wonder in the River Bay House. Ceilings painted by the Russian court artist, before the Civil War, are curiosities interesting enough to draw tourists from the farthest spot in America. As for Port Austin—not so antique—but fairly bursting with famous summer residents. Didn't feel so comfortable around them myself—made me feel too unimportant. And Broken Rocks and Point aux Barques took me down a bit too. Showed me that no poor writer could ever turn a phrase so beautifully as Lake Huron has formed a shoreline.

PRUNERS DAMAGE BLACK OAKS

THE TWIG PRUNER (By A. G. Clough, Tree Expert).

The twig pruner has become a very serious menace to the trees in this as well as in other localities. So it seems that some information concerning it would not be amiss.

The adult of the pruner (Rhabdion villosum) may be described as follows: dark brown, clothed with a grayish yellow, somewhat mottled pubescence, pronotum rather rough and with coarse deep punctures, the outer of the two spines on the tip of each elytron the longer. The larvae is the Pruner.

In this district the Pruners' attacks seem to be almost confined to the black oak group, probably because that is the predominating specimen here; the Pruner, however, attacks a large variety of the deciduous trees. The female of the species lays her eggs just under the bark of the twig or small limb, upon hatching the pruner bores a small tunnel all the way around the twig and keeps on boring around the twig until the heart-wood of the twig is reached then the pruner turns upward in the twig where it will hibernate until next year.

Most of these twigs will fall to the ground in the first wind. The only control for this pest is to gather the twigs regularly as they fall and burn them. The remainder of the limbs which do not fall will have to be removed by pruning. This requires the attention of an expert, as an inexperienced man could not distinguish the affected twigs from the unaffected.

Recently a notice was broadcast from a certain radio station to the effect that a certain poison placed around the tree at places where the roots would take it up, would kill the Pruners. This is practically an impossibility as a tree root will not take up poison if it can help it. Also, if it did take up some of it the poison in the sap of the tree would be all taken out by the wood fibers in the trunk and large limbs of the tree. So you will see that there is practically no chance for any of the poison to ever reach a point where it would do any good. The same applies to injections into the trunk of a tree, as practiced by some unscrupulous (Tree Surgeons). These two things have time and again been proven worthless if not detrimental.

Any further information may be obtained about this, or other tree troubles or needs by writing A. G. Clough, care of this office or by addressing A. G. Clough, Grayling.

RAAES WRITE FROM DENMARK

Copenhagen, July 16, 1930

Arrived here yesterday afternoon. Had a nice trip; lots of fog but no storms. The trip up the fjord to Oslo, Norway was very beautiful. Had six hours on shore there and took a trip way up into the mountains where we had a splendid view of the harbor and city.

They are expecting the Graf Zeppelin to pass over the city this afternoon. Lots of tourists on the streets here.

Best wishes from the Raaes.

ASPHALT CREW MAKES FINE PROGRESS ON US 27

During the past few months a continuous road building program has been in progress on trunkline U. S. 27. The evolution of the former gravel road to the present high speed route is the result of the road activities of the State Highway Department since the first of May.

The route has been improved by the construction of nine and one half miles of asphalt from the Crawford County line north of Roscommon to Grayling. Besides this approximately two miles of asphalt have been laid north of Grayling on the road to Frederic. This makes a total of nearly eleven and one half miles of asphalt laid by the Grayling plant in three and one half months.

This has been a busy summer in road activities. James W. Perkins, Superintendent and his crew of men, are now completing the seven mile stretch from Grayling to Frederic. By the end of the season Grayling will also have four miles of up-to-date motor highway to the Military camp on M 83, that is if the progress planned by the State Highway Department is successfully carried out. The engineers of the department have completed the preliminary survey to the camp.

This fine asphalt road is evidence of the fine supervision of the Grayling plant by Superintendent James W. Perkins. Commendation is due Mr. Perkins for his excellent work. Through the splendid cooperation of his men, we have this fine stretch of asphalt pavement.

A pleasing view along the highway is as important to the traveler as the smooth surfaces and the maintenance division are adding materially to the beauty of the trunk line by cutting down banks and obstructions and grading and building the shoulder ditches. Some work has been accomplished but there still remains a great deal of this work to be done. Such work is supervised by the State Highway Department under supervision of Harold Clift.

The city as a whole can be justly proud of what has been accomplished in the above described work.

NEWS FROM THE GOLF CLUB

A big turn-out is requested for the tournament Sunday, August 17. If everyone will qualify we should have a large representation and thereby increase the interest and enthusiasm.

Hand your donation for the Men's Championship cup to Mr. Daly, the pro. Plenty of help is needed and every little bit helps.

Miss L. C. Thomas has earned our congratulations by winning the Ladies Championship cup at the Saginaw Country Club.

The new putting green with nine holes and flags is in shape and ready for use. It's fascinating so be sure to try it. You'll find it a good game for that shadowy time of day when it's too dark to see your ball a great distance but still light enough to see some. Also you'll see your score go down as you gain skill on the green.

Esbern Hanson, Jr., and Father Herj each shot a fifteen on the putting green last week. Par for the course is seventeen.

Talk up your course, Patronize your pro. Let's make Grayling Golf course the place to go.

Nick Schlotz, Mayor Chris Olsen and Sheriff Bohemeyer were seen for the first time on the course Monday. Come again.

Sunday, August 17, is set for the qualifying round for the Men's Championship. Eighteen holes will be played. If you don't play yourself be sure to follow the players. You will enjoy it.

FRANK D. FITZGERALD HAS BEEN GIVEN ANOTHER VAL-UABLE ENDORSEMENT

Northern Michigan Road Commissioners Unanimously Endorse Him
For Office of Secretary Of State

The Northern Michigan Road Commissioners Association, comprising a group of county officials entrusted with the road building and maintenance problems in 25 of the counties in the upper part of the lower peninsula of Michigan, met in annual convention at Cheboygan on Wednesday and Thursday August 6th and 7th, resulting in the largest attended and most enthusiastic meeting ever held by the association. Interest was keen throughout the meetings and much business intended to further the interests of road building and maintenance in northern Michigan was brought to the attention of the meeting.

The convention was attended by State Highway Commissioner Dill-man, District Engineer Burridge and several other men primarily identified with state road matters, besides full delegations from every county in the district as well as others interested in the forthcoming road building and upkeep.

At the annual election of officers for another year, the following selections were made:

President—Chas. A. Francis, of Arenac county.
Vice President—Amos Buck, of Roscommon county.
Secretary—George S. Stout, of Missaukee county.
Treasurer—Sidney Medallie, of Antrim county.

Two subjects of state wide interest and concern were brought before the meeting and acted upon. The first was a resolution endorsing the work being done by the Bureau of Highway Education, an organization formed outside of the state highway department, and outside of road associations, to carry on a campaign of education that will acquaint the people of the state with the danger of acts intended to divert portions of the gas tax to other uses than building and maintaining trunk line roads.
The Bureau has been functioning splendidly, spreading the gospel of our present good roads program and a spirit of general state mindedness.
The resolution endorsing their work was unanimously adopted.

The other matter of statewide interest was the introduction of a resolution endorsing the candidacy of Frank D. Fitzgerald, who is now business manager of the state highway department, for Secretary of State.

The introduction of such a resolution was not pre-arranged, but a spontaneous effort on the part of the large number of men gathered to prove their appreciation and interest in the political ambitions of one who has had so much to do with all of them and has so admirably carried along the state highway department's business contact with the men of the state identified with its state, county and township roads.

The following resolution tells its own story:

WHEREAS, The Northern Michigan Road Commissioners' Associations is aware of the state-wide favorable sentiment in favor of Frank D. Fitzgerald for Secretary of State, and,

WHEREAS, Mr. Fitzgerald has always given wholehearted support to this association and loyal and consistent co-operation to its members,
and

WHEREAS, we believe him to be ably fitted by character, training and experience for this office of honor and trust, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That we endorse the Candidacy of Frank D. Fitzgerald for Secretary of State and further, that as individuals, we pledge Mr.
Fitzgerald our active and loyal support for said office, and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of this association be authorized and instructed to advise the various County Road Boards of the State of our action.

His Word Is As Good As His Bond

Someone has said that the Bible line could be revised so that it would read, "Where the heart is there will be the treasure." In this day of closer economies which are being forced upon us through a present condition, it is interesting to note where men make their "outs," and how some can break a pledge in support of the Christian Church more readily than the note which they have signed in payment of a wild-cat venture in dizzy finance. In the one case, there is legal compulsion; in the other only the sense of honor, to compel payment. Ben King has written for us a little poem with a real truth hidden in it:

"If I should die tonight
And you should come to my cold corpse and say, Weeping and heart-sick o'er my lifeless clay
If I should die tonight,
And you should come in deepest grief and woe
And say: 'Here's that ten dollars that I owe,'
I might arise in my large white cravat
And say, 'What's that?'"

If I should die tonight
And you should come to my cold corpse and kneel, Clasping my bier to show the grief
you feel,
I say, if I should die tonight
And you should come to me, and there and then
Just even hint 'bout payin' me
that ten,
I might arise the while,
But I'd drop dead again."

Just even hint 'bout payin' me
that ten,

I might arise the while,

But I'd drop dead again."

Just even hint 'bout payin' me
that ten,

I might arise the while,

But I'd drop dead again."

Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO.

Thursday, August 15, 1907.
Peter Borchert is putting a second story on his dwelling.

Wm. Raymond of Beaver Creek was in town Monday feeling good from having over 70 tons of prime hay in his barn.

H. P. Hanson returned from a two months job at Johannesburg last week and will use his tools here the balance of the season.

Oscar Hanson has the excavation completed for the basement and foundation for his new house, and the walls fast nearing completion.

R. P. Forbes and John Everett finished a job of carpenter work for T. E. Douglas and for the school district at Lovells, last week.

Feldhauser Brothers have just finished cutting 180,000 feet of timber for J. L. Traux, who will build a large barn and house upon his sheep ranch, on the North Branch of the AuSable.

Joe McNeven with his wife and baby, returned from a pleasant two weeks vacation at Boyne City, last Saturday. He has resumed the engineering feat on Jorgenson's delivery wagon.

Victor Salling and family went to Portage Lake for the day, Tuesday.

Sheriff Amidon, A. P. Forbes, John Everett and John Leese took a couple of days off on the river last week and took a nice string of trout, with a lot of sport.

E. J. Richards with his wife and son, of Dayton, Ohio, arrived here last Friday and are occupying their summer home on the west side of Portage Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Salling arrived here from their home in Anderson, Ind., for their annual visit with old friends, on Monday. They are always welcome.

John J. Niederer attended the district constitutional convention at Gladwin Tuesday, in place of Geo. L. Alexander who was unable to attend on account of business.

Edgar Dyer who has been in Cheboygan since last Thursday and pitched for the home team Sunday, returned to Grayling Monday noon. Dyer was always a favorite with Cheboygan base ball fans.—Cheboygan Tribune.

The value of Michigan's hay crop is estimated at $34,000,000. It will be worth that to the state if fed to cattle but if exported it will simply mean coining the fertility of the soil into money. It is the cattle we should export, not the hay.

Mrs. Hal Davis, with a number of lady friends took the Flyer north Monday p. m. for Minneapolis. And Messrs. Davis and Powell started with the auto in the evening for Grand Rapids. Mr. Powell will return the last of the week to remain until September.

Certain boys in the village are getting things fixed so they will wish they had not. The pulling of staples from wire fence, removing bars from pasture lots and other misdeemeanors are of such magnitude that the law will give them a term of lessons in the Industrial School for Boys at Lansing, which will have a salutary effect. If these acts are reported, warrants will certainly issue and the law be enforced.

Driven from the lowlands by forest fires, a small army of bears invaded Standish last week, forcing a suspension of business for several hours and terrorizing the population. The bears were themselves frightened, and this made the situation more tense. The visit was made just as the stores opened for business, and laborers were on their way to the factories. The invasion was headed by a large mother bear, followed by two cubs. They chose the principal street for entry, and when they had driven all people under cover were bold enough to stop in front of a grocery store and breakfast from a basket of turkeys. This vanguard was followed by the main army of four good-sized animals, but they refused to stop, racing through the business section in double quick time. When the inhabitants had recovered from their astonishment a big hunt was organized and in two hours three of the invaders were brought back as game. More bears have been seen in this section this summer than in ten years. Farmers have suffered much loss from their depredations. A bounty of $20 is offered by the county for every pelt.

Hard on Stock Gamblers
A New Great Flyer

Gas Merchants, Attention

Stock gambling is dull, uncertain times is most annoying to gamblers. They never can be quite sure. Wall Street heard of the drought, and wise bulls said: "That will kill grain crops, and with less wheat and corn, prices will go up. The low price of wheat has held stocks down. Let us buy stocks and they will go up with wheat."

They bought stocks and they did not go up when wheat and corn went up.

The bears said: "This is our opportunity. We sympathize with the suffering public, especially the farmer. When drought kills crops, that will injure all the people, and stocks will go down. This is the time to sell them." They sold them and stocks did not go down enough to make it worth while.

Stock gambling is very wearing, except for bulls in good times, and for bears in panics. There it is "like taking candy from a sick child."

Captain Hawley, who stands out now as the greatest American flyer, left New York at six o'clock in the morning, eastern daylight time, landed in Los Angeles at 50 minutes past 4:00 p. m., Pacific standard time, keeping his appointment to play golf at the edge of the Pacific after leaving that morning the edge of the Atlantic.

His flying time, all in broad daylight, was less than fifteen hours, and he made five stops for gasoline. That will not be necessary in future days, with better machines and better fuel.

In "Continental United States" the population is 122,729,472. Uncle Sam says so. This does not include Porto Rico, the Philippines or Hawaii.

In ten years population has increased 16.1 per cent. If that increase continues, our population 100 years hence, in 2030, will be 546,095,925.

Labor union experts reading that will say, "There could never be jobs for so many." Workers said that 130 years ago, when our population was 6,000,000.

Farmers would greet the idea of 546,095,925 population with joy, exclaiming, "That would give us people enough to eat all our wheat and pay a good price for it."

Germany made a great fight while the war lasted, and has shown amazing powers of recuperation following the war, in spite of the Versailles treaty and the allies' gold demands.

You understand that when you read "Literacy in Berlin is only 4 per cent. less than of all European capitals."

Of 28,000,000 books on the shelves of European libraries, the city of Berlin has 9,900,000, and all are serious books for students and research workers.

The highest rate of literacy is at Tehran, capital of Persia, 82 per cent. unable to read or write.

News from India causes Mother Britain to feel safe. Mohammedans continue fighting and killing Hindus—12 killed, 150 injured, in the latest clash, based on revenge.

For a wonder the worm had turned and Hindu, son of a race ordinarily mild, shot and killed eleven Mohammedans and wounded four. That's like a sheep biting a wolf.

Such incidents take the Hindus' mind off its grievances against Great Britain.

Unpleasant news from China. Nanking dispatches tell of a British woman, wife of a British official, attacked while asleep by a Chinese soldier and expected to die of bayonet wounds. Shanghai sends stories of torture and other outrages inflicted on women missionaries.

In Fukien province bandits kidnaped a woman missionary, cut off one of her fingers and sent it to the authorities, demanding $50,000, threatening to send other fingers if the money was not paid.

David Belasco obliges Mr. Curtiss by picking the "fifty greatest actors of all time," and many of them are now living—George M. Cohan, fifty-two; Mary Anderson, seventy-one; Blanche Madden Fluke, sixty-five; Maude Adams, fifty-eight; Neil Marlowe, sixty-four. The actors are supplied by Mr. Belasco but those that have been Cohan and the ladies can testify that at least twenty years should be taken from each.

The fact is that we have charming actors and actresses, but not "great" actors and actresses.

Rachel, born in Switzerland, daughter of a Jewish peddler, possessed genius that could not be extracted from all the American actresses that have ever lived.

Jean Tasseland, to prove that he loved a girl, wrote her a farewell note, jumped to his death from an airplane, his broken body landing in the garden of his mother's home.

Fools will make a hero of him. He would have been more like a hero had he taken care of his mother and lived to prove that he appreciated her, which is every man's first duty. (See 10th St. News Syndicate, Inc.)

All Europe, Canada and Australia are complaining loudly of depression, and as soon as the Democratic national committee's publicity gets around to it the whole thing will be blamed on the extra-territorial effects of the new tariff law.

WHAT PRICE NOMINATION?

That Wilber M. Brucker made his recent speaking tour of the northern peninsula of this state at a cost of $40 is a statement vouched for by the Grand Rapids Herald. This is not merely a curious statement—it is significant. What it means is that Mr. Brucker is making his primary campaign on his own pocketbook.

It is explained how the trip could be made on the sum named. Mr. Brucker did not cut an impressive swath in ostentation, as has been considered necessary in an expedition of the kind. Instead, if there was anything impressive about his 10-day speaking tour, it was the modesty of the expense involved. The question naturally arises in these days of mounting primary campaign expense, "How did he do it?" The answer is that he accepted the hospitality of friends, slept in the beds they offered and ate at their tables. Come to think of it, that is not an unreasonable thing to do. There are thousands and thousands of people of Michigan who would rejoice to entertain in their homes, by way of keeping down campaign expenses, a candidate who represented their ideas and ideals while on tour.

In recent months, from all over the union, has come stories of mounting costs in primary campaigns. The costs have not only been large, they have mounted until huge fortunes are involved. For the most part, these expenditures have been counted necessary. But are they? Wilber M. Brucker is engaged in a fight to test whether or not a man in ordinary circumstances can ever hope to aspire to high public office.

To what the Herald has been saying, there might also be added that Mr. Brucker not only refuses to accept campaign funds from others, but he seemingly refuses contributions of any kind from others except that they come to him without bargaining and without any undue implications. Those who pretend to know, say that Mr. Brucker steadfastly refuses to be known as the administration candidate. It is even said that Mr. Brucker refuses to be known as the Green candidate against Groesbeck. That this is so, The State Journal is not in a position to state with the categorical certainty with which the Grand Rapids Herald says he refuses campaign contributions but the belief does accord with Mr. Brucker's action thus far.

The Grand Rapids Herald goes on to say that if it is demonstrated in this primary campaign that no aspirant can hope to win without a large campaign fund, then the time will have definitely arrived when a thorough overhauling of our nominating system will have to be had.

There is a good deal to think about beside mere persons raised by the primary campaign we are now in.

Official but unverified census figures give the total population of continental United States as 122,729,472. The outlying possessions bring the grand total to 137,051,531, this including an estimate for the Philippine Islands where an enumeration has not been made for several years. The proportions of population east and west of the Mississippi have shifted less than one-half of 1 per cent in ten years, being respectively 60.6 per cent and 39.4 per cent. TWO MILLIONTH 6-CYLINDER AUTO

Another automotive record topped on Thursday when the Chevrolet Motor Company turned out its two millionth six-cylinder car less than twenty full months after the introduction of this type.

Just as Chevrolet led the world in four cylinder car production during the last two years that the company built that type, so now it assumes leadership in the six cylinder field by having built nearly five times as many sixes in twenty months as any other manufacturer in the history of the industry.

The two millionth six—a coach—rolled off the line with Chevrolet and General Motors executives in attendance to witness the final assembly of the car, for which no further ceremonies were planned.

The brief time required Chevrolet to build two million sixes provides an index to the rapid strides made by this organization to the front rank of volume car builders. The company was organized late in 1911, and there were required nearly seven years to turn out five million of the old four cylinder cars, while two million sixes have been placed on the streets and highways of the world since January 1, 1929, or in a total time of only nineteen months and one week.

Commenting on the manufacture of the two millionth six, W. S. Knudsen, President and General Manager, stated that the fact of establishing a new record was significant mainly in that it indicated a definite public preference for the performance and luxury which a six affords in the low priced field.

"We abandoned our position as the world's largest builder of four cylinder cars," Mr. Knudsen explained, "because the volume we had built up, coupled with the tremendous purchasing power of General Motors, enabled us to put two extra cylinders in our cars and yet retain the price range and operating economy of the old four cylinder car."

"Today the coach, one of the most popular models in the line, is priced twenty dollars lower than the four cylinder coach was ever sold. The experiences of two millions of owners are that gas and other operating and upkeep expenses are as low as any standard four cylinder car. The quick public acceptance of this fact, and the gratifying response to the new type, made possible our new production record."

Total output of the Chevrolet Motor Company to date is approximately 7,200,000 cars.

The government of Spain has announced tariff increases, with the explanation that it is not an act of reprisal for the new American tariff, which is probably true because the Spanish tariff was already the highest in the world and nearly twice as high as the American tariff.

Huge Crop Losses Due to Drought Boost Prices and Rouse Government.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

PROTRACTED drought and excessively hot weather brought to the farmers of the United States a mixture of good and evil. The administration to the consideration of relief measures beyond those contemplated by the act creating the federal farm board.

Both government and private crop reports led to estimates that the new corn crop had been damaged to the extent of at least 500,000,000 bushels, and the rains that fell throughout much of the corn belt during the week were said to have come too late to have much influence on the yield since pollination had failed.

Private reports by one of the leading experts of the Middle West indicated that a large part of the crop was beyond any material recovery. In Ohio the corn was deteriorating rapidly, and in southern Indiana it was badly damaged. In Illinois the situation was at its worst in the southern part of the state. The crop in northern and western Kentucky was said to be entirely ruined, and the condition in Missouri and Iowa was not much better. Throughout the whole drought region, also, pasturage and all fodder crops were burned up to an alarming extent.

On the other hand, these bad crop prospects led to a sensational rise in the prices of grain on the exchanges, and within a few days there was an estimated increase of about $350,000,000 in the theoretical value of farm products.

The market in Chicago went wild and corn led in the advance, followed by wheat and the other grains. For the first time in five years the public came on a big scale, and there was heavy buying orders from foreign countries. It was believed there would be a heavy substitution of wheat, oats, rye and barley for corn as live stock feed, and consequently the demand for those grains was large. Also the estimates of the Canadian wheat crop were slashed as a result of damage by drought, heat and black rust. The yield of rye in Europe, exclusive of Russia, will be far below normal, and the Prussian oats crop is greatly reduced.

PRESIDENT HOOVER conferred with Secretary of Agriculture Hyde on plans for a government program to aid the farmers threatened with ruin by the drought, and he asked both Mr. Hyde and Chairman Logan of the farm board to make recommendations within a few days. It was stated at the White House that the President had received prompt and favorable response to his appeal to railroad executives for co-operation in reducing rail rates for the emergency movement of live stock and feed in the stricken areas.

The farm loan board said it was willing to do all possible to extend credit through the intermediate credit banks, the farm land banks and joint stock land banks. From congressional quarters came many requests for help, and to those was added the offer of Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, to undertake a refund by congress to the farm board if the latter would divert all its available funds to drought relief.

The measures of assistance that the farm board and the other agencies of the federal government can and should undertake are being determined, said Mr. Hoover. "It is too early to determine the precise character of relief; much depends upon the further spread of the drought; but no stone will be left unturned by the federal government in giving assistance to local authorities."

IN OTHER ways the drought had serious results. There were numerous destructive forest fires in both the West and the East; the milk shortage in many regions was serious; and the water in the Mississippi river was so low that barges and towboats were stuck on sandbars and mud flats all along the Father of Waters. At the same time the levels of Lakes Michigan, Superior and Huron were higher; which led commentators on the lake diversion controversy to think that the policy of the government has resulted in giving the citizens who use the Great Lakes more water than they need, at the same time depriving the manufacturers and farmers of the Mississippi valley of sufficient water to float their cargoes to the sea.

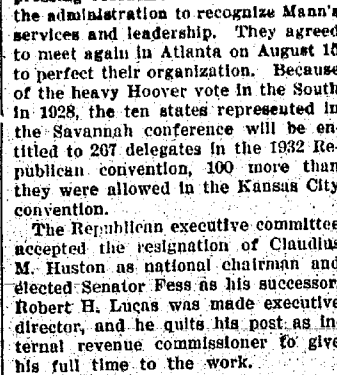

WHEAT prices and drought did not have much effect on the Republican primaries in Kansas as many persons had expected. Gov. Clyde M. Reed, who sought to champion the cause of the farmers and severely criticized the policies of the federal farm board, was defeated for re-election by Frank Hauke, farmer, World war veteran, and former state commander of the American Legion.

Senator Henry J. Allen, who was appointed by Governor Reed and is a staunch supporter of the Hoover administration, was nominated for the senate term ending in 1933, and Senator Capper was unopposed for re-nomination for the long term.

On the Democratic ticket Harry H. Woodring will oppose Hauke for the governorship, and Jonathan M. Davis, former governor, will try to defeat Senator Capper.

STUBBORN CASE QUICKLY YIELDS TO NEW KONJOLA

New Compound Brings Long Sought Relief From Rheumatism And Other Ailments.

MRS. ROSE GIZZO

"I am happy to have learned about this new medicine, Konjola, because, in less than a month it has brought my health back to normal," said Mrs. Rose Gizzo, 444 Eagle street, Buffalo. "I suffered severely from rheumatism and often had headaches, backaches and heartburn. My appetite was poor and I lost a lot of weight. I was nervous and subject to frequent dizzy spells. This condition existed for about ten years until I gave Konjola a trial. The first bottle helped me and as I continued the treatment my health troubles vanished. Today I am not troubled with rheumatism, headaches, or backaches. I have a wonderful appetite and have put on considerable weight. My nerves are much improved. I am still taking Konjola."

The files of Konjola are filled with just such happy expressions. Konjola, when taken systematically over a six to eight week period, has done for thousands what it did for Mrs. Gizzo.

Konjola is sold in Grayling, Michigan at the Mac & Gidley drug store and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

Carrots are a good source of vitamins, if quickly cooked or grated raw in a vegetable salad.

When making apple jelly flavor a few glasses with mint and add green coloring. This will be appetizing to serve with lamb.

The recent discovery that ripe olives contain vitamin A suggests using them more frequently in the menu. Ripe olives are excellent when added to sandwich fillings.

Solid spruce-pulp fillers and special ly-treated strawboard fillers are used considerably in packing eggs for cold storage. These fillers help to prevent the characteristic flavor of cold-storage eggs.

Sweetpotatoes, when properly dried, can be ground into a meal or flour which will last indefinitely and will not lose its flavor when used in making pies and custards, according to the Bureau of Chemistry and Soils, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

French toast is an appetizing way of using stale bread, and provides a main dish for breakfast, lunch or supper. Allow 1/4 to 1/2 cup of milk to 2 eggs. Beat the mixture, salt lightly, and dip slices of bread into it until well soaked. Fry in butter or well-seasoned fat in a heavy smooth skillet. Use moderate heat and let the toast become golden brown on one side before turning.

At the markets this fall you may find potatoes in handy size cotton bags of unique design. The Bureau of Home Economics of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and the North Carolina Agricultural College developed this new "consumer package." One side of the bag is an open-mesh fabric through which the buyer may inspect the size and quality of the potatoes. The other half of the bag is a close weave to display the producer's brand. The bag increases the incentive for growing good potatoes and marketing them as a graded product under a trade brand. The sacks also expand the market for cotton crop.

To make white icing which never fails, put into a double boiler one cup of sugar, 4 tablespoons cold water, 1 egg-white, not beaten, and 1/4 teaspoon of salt. Have the water in the lower part boiling. Commence beating the mixture at once with a Dover beater and beat constantly while it cooks for seven or eight minutes. It should then look just like ordinary boiled frosting and should be almost thick enough to spread. Take it from the stove, add 1/4 teaspoon of vanilla and continue to beat about 5 minutes or until it has thickened.

Many people, particularly those who are acquainted with the use of honey in the granulated form, prefer granulated honey to liquid honey, and there is always a good market for the former, say apiculturists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Granulated honey can be used very much like butter, can be spread rapidly, and the addition, to which so many people object, is obviated in this condition. Almost all honeys have a tendency to granulate after being removed from the hive. Alfalfa honey in particular granulates quickly after being extracted.

JOHN HENRY MEARS and his pilot, H. J. Brown, who intended to make a record-breaking airplane flight around the world, have had to postpone it, for their plane was wrecked as it was leaving the runway at Harbor Grace, Newfoundland.

The German aviators, Hirth and Weller, who were on their way from Berlin to Chicago by way of Iceland and Greenland, reached Reykjavik, Iceland, safely, but abandoned their project for want of a suitable landing place in Greenland and because their supply of gas did not arrive.

Capt. Frank Hawks set a new record for flight from New York to Los Angeles, making the distance in a single little monoplane in 14 hours, 50 minutes and 43 seconds, with five stops for refueling. His average speed was about 170 miles an hour.

If your sewing machine has been closed for any length of time, it will probably need a thorough going over. Wipe and dust it carefully, fill your oil can with kerosene, oil every part and run it vigorously without thread until well heated up.

Run oil with good quality of machine oil and go over it the next again. Wipe and clean thoroughly, stitch on scraps until the thread is perfectly clean, and as a final precaution, tie a bit of wool on the needle foot above the needle to keep the oil from running down the shaft.

WHEAT prices and drought did not have much effect on the Republican primaries in Kansas as many persons had expected. Gov. Clyde M. SOUTHERNERS who voted for Hoover in 1928, through Horace Mann, formally announced their rebellion against the administration of southern federal patronage and political affairs generally by Postmaster Walter H. Brown. Mr. Mann's statement, which was issued on the eve of a meeting of the Republican National executive committee in Washington, outlined plans adopted by a group of prominent southern Republicans to incorporate in "all-southern" Republican organization and throw off the yoke of northern "patronage carpet-baggers" as well as of "designing political hijackers."

Hoovercrats representing ten southern states had met in conference in Savannah and adopted resolutions expressing resentment at the refusal of the administration to recognize Mann's services and leadership. They agreed to meet again in Atlanta on August 15 to perfect their organization. Because of the heavy Hoover vote in the South in 1928, the ten states represented in the Savannah conference will be entitled to 207 delegates in the 1932 Republican convention, 100 more than they were allowed in the Kansas City convention.

The Republican executive committee accepted the resignation of Claudius M. Huston as national chairman and elected Senator Fess as his successor. Robert H. Lucas was made executive director, and he quits his post as internal revenue commissioner to give his full time to the work.

GREAT interest was felt in a conference which Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York held with John J. Raskob, former Gov. Al Smith and other party leaders. It was understood that Mr. Roosevelt would seek re-election on a "dripping-wet" platform and would make a leading issue of public electricity rates. The belief was that Mr. Smith would place Mr. Roosevelt in nomination at the state convention.

Republicans of New York state seem badly split as to the liquor question. The wets, led by former Senator James W. Wadsworth, insist upon a declaration for repeal of the Eighteenth amendment, declaring they will accept no compromise. The drys, on the other hand, are as firm in their stand and threaten to form a new dry party if the wet plank is adopted.

BEFORE a crowd of 5,000 persons, two negroes were lynched by a mob in Marion, Ind. They had been arrested for murdering a white man and attacking his girl companion, and were said to have confessed. The sheriff, police and fire department tried in vain to scatter the lynchers with tear-bombs and fire hose streams.

PRESIDENT HOOVER announced the appointment of Maj. Gen. Douglas MacArthur to be chief of staff of the army to succeed Maj. Gen. C. P. Summerall when the latter retires in November. General MacArthur, who is head of the army department in the Philippines, is now on temporary duty in China. He is fifty-five years old, the youngest army officer of his rank in active service, and was advanced over the heads of several older officers, the President said, because he is the senior major general whose age would permit him to serve the full four-year term as chief of staff. He graduated from West Point in 1903 and his career, especially in the World war, was brilliant.

At the same time the President appointed Brig. Gen. Ben H. Fuller to be commandant of the marine corps to fill the vacancy left by the death of General Neville.

REAL foreign intervention in China may soon result from the bloody doings of the Chinese Communists in Hunan province, if it is not already in effect. The British are leading the way, sending a considerable number of soldiers up the Yangtze to Hankow, which was threatened by the Reds. The troops were to be placed on a cruiser ready to be landed if necessary to protect British property. The American gunboat Tutuila left for upriver to reinforce the Palos, and the flagship Pittsburgh of the Asiatic fleet with a destroyer division, was on the way from Tsingto to Shanghai. Japan also was in action, sending a number of destroyers with landing parties of marines to Hankow, Kluksiang and other river ports threatened by Communist invasion.

The Nationalist government had admitted its inability to guarantee protection for foreign residents of Hankow, though it was sending additional troops to that region and had re-occupied Changsha. The Communists were still entrenched in the hills about the city and were continuing their sanguinary course, having already slain two thousand Chinese residents of the place and captured four thousand. Outrages against British Nationals included the sending of a severed finger of Miss Edith Nettleton, missionary, with a demand for $50,000 ransom for herself and Miss Edith Harrison, held captive a month, to the British legation.

UNEMPLOYMENT in Great Britain has reached the highest point since July, 1921, the number registered as out of work being 2,011,407. Last week hundreds of railway employees were laid off because of the falling off in traffic. Official reports show that unemployment in Germany is decreasing slightly, in France is negligible, and has decreased in Denmark, Sweden, Holland, Italy and Austria.

In the United States the situation was brightened somewhat by resumption of work in the automobile factories of the Detroit area and other places and by several of the biggest railway shops. The Chicago region saw good prospects for a revival of the building industry.

The German aviators, Hirth and Weller, who were on their way from Berlin to Chicago by way of Iceland and Greenland, reached Reykjavik, Iceland, safely, but abandoned their project for want of a suitable landing place in Greenland and because their supply of gas did not arrive.

Capt. Frank Hawks set a new record for flight from New York to Los Angeles, making the distance in a single little monoplane in 14 hours, 50 minutes and 43 seconds, with five stops for refueling. His average speed was about 170 miles an hour.

WHEAT prices and drought did not have much effect on the Republican primaries in Kansas as many persons had expected. Gov. Clyde M. Reed, who sought to champion the cause of the farmers and severely criticized the policies of the federal farm board, was defeated for re-election by Frank Hauke, farmer, World war veteran, and former state commander of the American Legion.

Senator Henry J. Allen, who was appointed by Governor Reed and is a staunch supporter of the Hoover administration, was nominated for the senate term ending in 1933, and Senator Capper was unopposed for re-nomination for the long term.

On the Democratic ticket Harry H. Woodring will oppose Hauke for the governorship, and Jonathan M. Davis, former governor, will try to defeat Senator Capper.

SOUTHERNERS who voted for Hoover in 1928, through Horace Mann, formally announced their rebellion against the administration of southern federal patronage and political affairs generally by Postmaster Walter H. Brown. Mr. Mann's statement, which was issued on the eve of a meeting of the Republican National executive committee in Washington, outlined plans adopted by a group of prominent southern Republicans to incor-

STUBBORN CASE QUICKLY YIELDS TO NEW KONJOLA

New Compound Brings Long Sought Relief From Rheumatism And Other Ailments.

"I am happy to have learned about this new medicine, Konjola, because, in less than a month it has brought my health back to normal," said Mrs. Rose Gizzo, 444 Eagle street, Buffalo. "I suffered severely from rheumatism and often had headaches, backaches and heartburn. My appetite was poor and I lost a lot of weight. I was nervous and subject to frequent dizzy spells. This condition existed for about ten years until I gave Konjola a trial. The first bottle helped me and as I continued the treatment my health troubles vanished. Today I am not troubled with rheumatism, headaches, or backaches. I have a wonderful appetite and have put on considerable weight. My nerves are much improved. I am still taking Konjola."

The files of Konjola are filled with just such happy expressions. Konjola, when taken systematically over a six to eight week period, has done for thousands what it did for Mrs. Gizzo.

Konjola is sold in Grayling, Michigan at the Mac & Gidley drug store and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

Carrots are a good source of vitamins, if quickly cooked or grated raw in a vegetable salad.

When making apple jelly flavor a few glasses with mint and add green coloring. This will be appetizing to serve with lamb.

The recent discovery that ripe olives contain vitamin A suggests using them more frequently in the menu. Ripe olives are excellent when added to sandwich fillings.

Solid spruce-pulp fillers and special ly-treated strawboard fillers are used considerably in packing eggs for cold storage. These fillers help to prevent the characteristic flavor of cold-storage eggs.

Sweetpotatoes, when properly dried, can be ground into a meal or flour which will last indefinitely and will not lose its flavor when used in making pies and custards, according to the Bureau of Chemistry and Soils, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

French toast is an appetizing way of using stale bread, and provides a main dish for breakfast, lunch or supper. Allow 1/4 to 1/2 cup of milk to 2 eggs. Beat the mixture, salt lightly, and dip slices of bread into it until well soaked. Fry in butter or well-seasoned fat in a heavy smooth skillet. Use moderate heat and let the toast become golden brown on one side before turning.

At the markets this fall you may find potatoes in handy size cotton bags of unique design. The Bureau of Home Economics of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and the North Carolina Agricultural College developed this new "consumer package." One side of the bag is an open-mesh fabric through which the buyer may inspect the size and quality of the potatoes. The other half of the bag is a close weave to display the producer's brand. The bag increases the incentive for growing good potatoes and marketing them as a graded product under a trade brand. The sacks also expand the market for cotton crop.

To make white icing which never fails, put into a double boiler one cup of sugar, 4 tablespoons cold water, 1 egg-white, not beaten, and 1/4 teaspoon of salt. Have the water in the lower part boiling. Commence beating the mixture at once with a Dover beater and beat constantly while it cooks for seven or eight minutes. It should then look just like ordinary boiled frosting and should be almost thick enough to spread. Take it from the stove, add 1/4 teaspoon of vanilla and continue to beat about 5 minutes or until it has thickened.

Many people, particularly those who are acquainted with the use of honey in the granulated form, prefer granulated honey to liquid honey, and there is always a good market for the former, say apiculturists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Granulated honey can be used very much like butter, can be spread rapidly, and the addition, to which so many people object, is obviated in this condition. Almost all honeys have a tendency to granulate after being removed from the hive. Alfalfa honey in particular granulates quickly after being extracted.

JOHN HENRY MEARS and his pilot, H. J. Brown, who intended to make a record-breaking airplane flight around the world, have had to postpone it, for their plane was wrecked as it was leaving the runway at Harbor Grace, Newfoundland.

The German aviators, Hirth and Weller, who were on their way from Berlin to Chicago by way of Iceland and Greenland, reached Reykjavik, Iceland, safely, but abandoned their project for want of a suitable landing place in Greenland and because their supply of gas did not arrive.

MAKE IT PASS THREE GATES OF GOLD

If you are tempted to reveal a tale some one has told to you about another, make it pass, before you speak, three gates of gold. Three narrow gates, first, "Is it true?" Then, "Is it needful?" In your mind give truthful answer, and the next is last, and narrowest, "Is it kind?" And if to reach your lips at last it passes through these gateways three, then you may tell nor ever fear what the result of speech may be.—Anonymous.

Is it any wonder that owners of resort property oftentimes resent the encroachment of tourists and resorters upon their property. Only last week Conservation Officer Dutton and J. Burt Kiely had occasion to visit the American Legion camp ground at Higgins lake and there found how some people appreciate the great outdoors. Not only had they left their camp ground in a frightful condition with rubbish scattered all over but had taken occasion to damage several beautiful birch trees of their bark. Several trees eight and ten inches in diameter were stripped of their bark for a height of ten feet, much of it being left on the ground as evidence of their thoughtlessness and vandalism. People who cannot refrain from destroying nature's beauty while on a pleasure and health giving trip should be rounded up by police officers and made to pay a severe penalty.—Rosecommon Herald-News.

INDIAN Green Lite Gas

A New High Speed Racing Gas at the Regular Price

Two-Day Special

To introduce this new idea in a high powered clean gasoline, we are making a Special Offer for SATURDAY and SUNDAY, AUGUST 16 and 17 of—

2 Quarts Havoline Oil with each 5 Gallons of Gas

If you do not need the oil at this special time, we will give you a ticket good for it, at any time.

Now, the refiners of the famous Indian Red Anti-Knock Gas and The New Waxfree Havoline Motor Oil bring you a third great triumph in refining: the new Indian Green-Lite Gasoline—a vastly improved high speed racing gas at no extra cost!

New Indian Green Lite is far better distilled than ordinary standard-priced fuels. It contains no back-firing parts to spit and sputter. It is what race drivers call an even burning gas—a fuel that delivers a tremendous "follow through" on the power-stroke, giving you instant get-away... soaring pick-up... flying speed... greater mileage.

This new and better green gas takes the place of the regular white Indian Gas you have been using, but sells at the same price. Try it today—and be gone when the green lights say "go!"

HARD SOFT CORNS

Gone in 4 Days Roots and All Callouses Too

Out to stay out—selling like hot cakes in Great Britain and now in America—the pleasant, easy way to get rid of corns—a joyous, refreshing, invigorating foot bath for 3 or 4 nights and then lift out the corn-roots and all.

They call this miracle worker Radox and since it has been working wonders with the bad feet of the tight little ladies—plasters and acids, cutting and skin destroying liquid belong to the dark ages.

It's the modern way—the sensible way to take out corns—to abolish callouses—to dissolve the hard skin from heels and toes and to put your feet in good vigorous condition so that you can walk and run and jump and dance with ease and pleasure.

Just ask for a box of Radox at the Mac & Gidley drug store or any modern drug store—you'll be delighted.

Still the situation is not without some consolation, even for the farmers, if the price of wheat is down, a bushel of it will still buy about as many gallons of gas as in the days before the war.

People who are too busy to take a vacation should leave from the lowly ant. Consider the ant. There is nothing busier than an ant, and yet it always finds time to go on picnics.
